“ Guns and Roses is playing on the radio and Bill came to my mind. I miss Bill today. I remember when he would pick me up in his Corvette and we would go out for rides. I had a friend in Bill. We had fun collecting football cards. Rest in peace Bill.

“ could someone please explain why and how bill is gone?

I just found out. I last spoke to him in December 2016.

I can not believe he is gone. I don't understand.

“ I am grateful to have had you in my life these past 10 years not just as Michael's brother and Uncle to my children but also as my brother- in- law. You and Renee (and other family members) helped your brother and I through a very difficult time in our life and relationship and we were and still are very appreciative of that and will never forget it. You are now with your nephew Joseph and I hope you are having just as much fun with him as you did with your boys and my boys. I love you Billy and will miss you dearly take care of our angle baby for Michael and I...

“ Bill you were like a brother to me. I still remember the day I met u at UPS and all the talks while we picked off together. I was so happy for you when you had your boys and you And Renee gave me that great gift of being Kyles godfather You took me in when the ex and I had a fight I tried to help you with your demons but I couldn't get them off u. I hope you rest in peace and know if the boys need anything I will be there for them. Rest in peace my brother I will dearly miss u. Loved u man

“ When I heard the news, I instantly felt the loss of my brother. Over the past couple of days, I feel I've lost so much more than that, so much more than the words I have to explain! I want to thank you all for writing such kind words about my big brother, as being away from home during these times are already hard enough. Over the past week, I maybe have read everyone's post here more than twice. Some of you I know, some of you I vaguely remember by name and some of you I don't know at all, but I am sorry for your loss. But I thank you for giving me something to at least check in on at the end of a trying day. My family tree, besides some of the twists that supposedly surround it, has lost one vital limb that at one time was strong enough for us to climb, hang to and sometimes swing from, and we will never recover. Billy, I miss you too and I am so sorry. I hope that even though you'll soon be reunited, with some of the former greats of our lifetime, please find your baby nephew Joseph, and share your love with him, the way you at one time shared it with me. Let him know his daddy loves and misses him! I look forward to seeing you both again someday, but until my time, I'll find a way to always make right with yours! I love you brother! R.I.P.

“ I met Bill when I was 5 or 6 years old. I moved away. He soon followed and moved near us. He was a constant in my childhood, through high school and up to my early twenties before I moved away to Florida.

When I was struggling with my sexuality and came out gay, Bill's response was "Okay... So did you want to go to the shore this Thursday or not?". He wasn't glossing it over. It was a non-issue to him which helped me accept myself that much sooner.

Whenever I would hang up on the phone, Bill would not allow me to say "goodbye" because that was final. So I would always change it to "until next time".

Bill... Until next time. May you find celestial peace. If you've met up with my brother in the afterlife you two can play a rousing game of "got you last" as you always did when we were younger.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the family and friends. We are so very sorry for your loss. BJ was a kind and thoughtful man. I remember him coming to our house.. Love the time when he and David were wrapping Christmas presents after work. He used to give us Godiva Chocolate. When he would call, he didn't want to end our conversation with Good Bye, Should say, see you later, or just I love you. Always he our hearts. Joan and Phil viveiros
