

William C. Warner

February 14, 1947 - February 1, 2021

William C. Warner, “Wolfman”, of Burlington passed away at his residence Monday, February 1st, he was 73 years old.

Born to the late Clarence and Martha Warner on February 14, 1947, William was a life-long Burlington County resident. William was passionate about cars, especially his 69’ Chevy Nova, and he was a diehard NASCAR fan. William also enjoyed talking on his CB radio and his handle with the handle Wolfman. He worked many years in the Trucking industry as a “Yard Jockey”, backing up all the trailers to the loading area. William enjoyed spending time at shore with his family, renting a beach house in Seaside for many years. You’d be able to find him on the beach by day and walking the boardwalk by night. He liked going to the Lumberton Fair, where he was able to get sausage, pepper, and onion sandwiches. William will be greatly missed.

William is survived by his children William J. Warner (Traci), Scott R. Warner (Monica), and Sheree Stuart (Michael), his grandchildren Zack, Katelyn, Tyler, Jordan, Sydney, Shauna, and Morgan, and great-grandchild Jonathan, and his sister Nancy Schreiber, as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

William was predeceased by his beloved wife Susanna, and brother David Warner.

“ Some of our fondest, happiest and entertaining memories, are those spend with Uncle Bill. His energy, determination, spirit and kindheartedness were all traits that made us admire and think of him always. May the Lord receive him, and hold you in his arms as you carry the sorrow of his loss. Our deepest sympathies, condolences and prayers go out to you during this time.

*Rest in peace and perfect health Uncle Bill. My memories of my Uncle Bill were impressed on me from a child's view. When we (my brother and sister) would come to visit my grandmother at Red Lion and the shore, he would always greet us with a warm and playful smile and strong hug. He was easy to be around and interested to know how we were and what we'd been up to. I will always hold on to those memories dear and my heart goes out to our cousins Sheree, Scott and Billy. “ Bill was the sweetest man around. Always quiet- but a genuine smile and warm soul! Growing up in the horse show circuit, he was always there to help us and cheer us on! I hope that everyone that knew him holds onto their special memories of him to help them grieve and heal- but he is reunited with his love in heaven! Sending hugs to Bill, Scott and Sheree and their families. ❤️

“ He loved his family and friends. I remember hanging out at wolfmans house as a kid. He worked the midnight shift but on his days off he would make time for family and load us all in the back of his pick up and treat us to ice cream. He was very generous , funny and most of all loving. Bill you will be missed by many. Love you.
